

Scott Morrison

DIRECTOR / BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT MANAGER

Scott is a Director of Jensen Bowers Group and a Registered Surveyor with 20 years of surveying and industry experience. Scott is our Business Development Manager and Technologist who advises on survey methodology, equipment and resources.

Scott has extensive experience as a senior surveyor and the management of teams on large and complex cadastral/property tenement surveys, infrastructure and civil engineering projects utilising while utilising the latest surveying equipment and software.

SPECIALISATION

- Pre-purchase due diligence investigations
- Development project management and advice
- Leases (residential, commercial & industrial)
- Lease of land
- Land subdivisions and titling;
- Building/strata titling
- Easement and volumetric creation
- Disclosure/pre sale documentation and advice
- Detail/topographical feature surveys
- Building, civil and infrastructure set out
- Rail location, construction and set out
- GPS surveys

EXPERIENCE

RNA Redevelopment Project Lend Lease / RNA

- Subdivision of land
- Titling
- Plan sealing
- As-constructed survey services
- Service location survey
- Engineering construction setout
- Building construction setout
- Detail and future survey

Transport Network Reconstruction Project, Transport Main Roads / AECOM

- Detail and future survey
- Control survey
- Boundary definition
- Resumption and construction setout survey services

Qualifications

- Bachelor of Spatial Science (Surveying), USQ

Professional affiliations

- Registered Surveyor with the Surveyors Board of Queensland
- Member of the Surveying and Spatial Sciences Institute

Jensen Bowers Group

Health & Safety Representative